Mr. Vishwanath

Faculty – English | T. John Pre-University College

With an innate command over the English language and a flair for nurturing minds, Mr. Vishwanath brings both depth and dynamism to his teaching. His expertise bridges the gap between native and non-native speakers, making English accessible, engaging, and inspiring for all learners.

A gifted communicator with exceptional written and verbal prowess, he transforms even the most complex texts into relatable and meaningful lessons. Whether it's unpacking Shakespeare or exploring modern prose, his classroom is a space where language comes alive.

Mr. Vishwanath is not just a teacher, but a storyteller. He brings literature to life through creative dramatization, sparking imagination and emotional connection among students. Passionate about pedagogy, he meticulously plans each lesson, curating diverse resources to ensure rich and relevant learning experiences.

Beyond the classroom, he is known for organizing vibrant literary events and competitions that fuel creativity and critical thinking. A mentor at heart, he consistently motivates students toward linguistic excellence and instills in them a lifelong love for the English language.

Education:

*Obtained Master's degree in English @Bangalore University, Bangalore
*Completed 2 years B.Ed program from Gulbarga University, Kalaburagi
* Graduated BA Journalism @ KLE College Bangalore

Achievements:

- Coursework in English Language and Literature – built on a strong foundation of literary history, pedagogy, and critical analysis.

- Specialized study in Post-Colonial Theory – offering unique perspectives into the cultural and political impact of colonialism on English literature.

- Project work in English Linguistics – with a focus on the evolution, structure, and practical usage of language in modern contexts.

- Internship experience with major media houses – including Kannada Prabha Daily and Suvarna News, sharpening his command over language, communication, and editorial practices in professional settings.

You can reach out to Vishwanath at vishwanath@tjohngroup.com