Mrs. Chaithra N
Accountancy Lecturer – T. John Pre-University College.

With numbers at her fingertips and logic as her language, Mrs. Chaithra N is more than just an Accountancy lecturer—she's a strategist of commerce. With over six years of experience navigating the intricate world of accounts and business, she transforms ledgers and balance sheets into living stories of financial sustainability. Her teaching bridges the gap between theoretical precision and real-world relevance, turning complex accounting concepts into tools for building strong, future-ready enterprises. In her classroom, numbers speak, businesses breathe, and every equation adds up to insight.
